

Facial Aesthetics — Medical Knowledge
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understands normal anatomy of skin and soft tissue of the face Describes the normal relationships, angles, and proportions in facial analysis 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understands concepts of facial aging and basic surgical and non-surgical treatments for the aging face Understands concepts of skin resurfacing (e.g. laser science, chemical peel) Appreciates the assessment and impact of psychological factors on outcomes in aesthetic facial surgery 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understands indications for various treatment options for addressing the aging face Understands anatomy and principles of surgical and non-surgical procedures, (e.g., fillers, peels, neuromodulators, browlifts, blepharoplasties, facelifts, rhinoplasties, necklifts, and fat grafting) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understands the effects of treatment of surgical and non-surgical options and understands possible complications Understands anatomy and surgical principles of complex treatments for the aging face, (e.g., endoscopic procedures, deep plane facelifts, secondary rhinoplasties), and the dynamics of combining various procedures for treatment of facial aging 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understands and contributes to outcomes research in aesthetic facial surgery
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Comments: Not yet rotated <input type="checkbox"/>

Facial Aesthetics — Patient Care
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Performs focused history and physical examination of patients presenting with aesthetic facial concerns Assists with facial aesthetic procedures, (e.g., making incisions and simple suture skin closure) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explains risks and benefits of facial aesthetic procedures and obtains consent Performs routine facial aesthetic procedures (e.g., upper blepharoplasty, scar revision, harvesting of cartilage grafts, fat injections, injection of neuromodulators) with assistance Recognizes complications (e.g., hematoma, seroma, wound dehiscence, necrosis, chemosis, brow ptosis) and enlists appropriate help 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Formulates a treatment plan (risks, benefits, options, and alternatives) with assistance Independently performs routine procedures; performs complex procedures (e.g., facelifts, necklifts, tip rhinoplasty, chemical peels, laser resurfacing) with assistance Manages complications (e.g., scleral show, brow ptosis, eyelid ptosis, soft tissue granulomas) with assistance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Independently assesses, diagnoses, and formulates treatment plans, including for patients with comorbidities, previous surgeries, and complicating factors Independently performs procedures (e.g., primary rhinoplasties, lower blepharoplasties, and facelifts) Independently manages complications 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Independently treats complex secondary deformities of facial aging/prior surgery Leads an integrated center for the treatment of facial aesthetics
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Comments: Not yet rotated <input type="checkbox"/>				