

Head and Neck — Medical Knowledge
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understands benign and malignant diseases, including the skin and aero-digestive tract</li> <li>Understands the anatomy of the head and neck (e.g., periorbita, salivary glands, and lymphatic systems)</li> <li>Understands the epidemiology and staging of head and neck and skin cancer</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understands surgical treatments for cancers of the head and neck (e.g., melanoma, parotid, and pharynx)</li> <li>Understands the principles of extirpation (e.g., margins) and reconstruction for lesions of the head and neck; understands diagnostic workup and imaging studies</li> <li>Understands the role of additional modalities (e.g., tracheostomy, feeding tube)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understands the indications for surgical and non-surgical treatment and ancillary procedures (e.g., sentinel node biopsy)</li> <li>Understands the principles of routine procedures (e.g., wedge resections of the lip, local facial flaps)</li> <li>Understands the effects of prior treatment modalities on reconstructive options (e.g., osteoradionecrosis)</li> <li>Understands the management of regional and distant metastases</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understands the sequelae of interventions (e.g., surgical deformities, long-term outcomes)</li> <li>Understands the principles of complex procedures (e.g., neck dissection, microsurgical bone transfer, total nasal reconstruction)</li> <li>Understands adjunctive reconstructive options (e.g., dental implants, maxillofacial prosthetics)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understands novel diagnostic and treatment modalities for head and neck cancer</li> </ul>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Comments:				Not yet rotated <input type="checkbox"/>

Head and Neck — Patient Care
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Performs history and physical of the patient with skin cancer and aero-digestive tract malignancy</li> <li>• Assists with procedures (e.g., skin biopsies, excision of minor skin lesions)</li> <li>• Provides routine post-operative care; initiates cancer surveillance</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explains risks and benefits of extirpative and reconstructive procedures and obtains consent</li> <li>• Performs routine excisions and reconstructions (e.g., adjacent tissue transfer and skin graft) with assistance</li> <li>• Recognizes complications (e.g., bleeding, orocutaneous fistula, flap compromise) and enlists help; prescribes post-operative rehabilitation</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Formulates a treatment plan with assistance</li> <li>• Independently performs routine procedures; performs complex procedures (e.g., pedicled flaps, myocutaneous flaps, repair of complex eyelid and full thickness nasal defects) with assistance</li> <li>• Manages complications with assistance</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Independently formulates a treatment plan, including for patients with comorbidities</li> <li>• Independently performs complex reconstructions, including microvascular, bone, nerve, and soft tissue transfers</li> <li>• Independently manages complications (e.g., failed microvascular transfers)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Helps lead a multidisciplinary head and neck cancer team</li> </ul>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Comments: Not yet rotated <input type="checkbox"/>				