Dear Dr. Campbell:

Re: Penn State College of Medicine Faculty Appointment

It is my pleasure to inform you that, with the approval of Harold L. Paz, M.D., Senior Vice President for Health Affairs and Dean, you have been appointed Clinical Assistant Professor of Surgery in the Penn State College of Medicine. This faculty appointment will be effective May 15, 2014 - June 30, 2016 and is renewable. This appointment carries no salary or fringe benefits from the University. You will be responsible for such teaching as is assigned by your department and agreed to by you. You are welcome to attend all faculty meetings of your department and other academic events of interest at the College of Medicine.

In accepting this appointment, you agree to abide by applicable Penn State policies in force during your appointment at the Penn State College of Medicine with respect to intellectual property and conflict of interest. (<http://guru.psu.edu/policies/OHR/hr91.html>; <http://guru.psu.edu/policies/IP01.html>) Please review these documents carefully. By signing this letter, you agree to accept the terms of these policies.

In addition, if you do not have electronic access to medical journals at your current place of employment, you are eligible as a clinical/adjunct Penn State faculty member for electronic access to online journals and other library resources through Penn State libraries. If you are interested in requesting this access, please follow the instructions provided and return the paperwork with this letter.

Your faculty appointment is contingent upon your continuing to provide educational services to the Penn State College of Medicine. You are required to notify our office immediately if your current employment terminates and you are no longer providing educational services. If you accept this appointment, please sign on the line below, maintain a copy for your records, and return this letter along with the enclosed information form (and library access form, if applicable) within fifteen working days of receipt to:
