

Craniosynostosis/Craniomaxillofacial/Soft Tissue Conditions— Patient Care
Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explains the risks and benefits of treatment for craniosynostosis and obtains consent • Explains the risks and benefits of treatment for hypoplastic syndromes (e.g., Pierre Robin Sequence, hemifacial microsomia, Parry-Romberg Syndrome) and obtains consent • Explains the risks and benefits of treatment for acquired craniomaxillofacial defects (e.g., trauma, neoplasm) and obtains consent • Assists with peri-operative care for patients with craniofacial conditions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Formulates a longitudinal treatment plan for craniofacial conditions • Manages peri-operative care for patients with craniofacial conditions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Performs craniofacial procedures (e.g., facial nerve reconstruction, mandibular distraction, tumor reconstruction, fronto-orbital advancement, LeFort III osteotomy) with assistance • Manages complications (e.g., CSF leak, post-operative infection, airway compromise) with assistance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Independently performs craniofacial procedures • Manages secondary deformities of craniofacial conditions (e.g. mid-face hypoplasia, enophthalmos, malocclusion) • Manages complications (e.g., CSF leak, post-operative infection, airway compromise) • Plays a leadership role in the craniofacial team 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Independently manages complex secondary deformities of craniofacial conditions
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Comments:				